ABOUT THE NOOHRA FOUNDATION

The Noohra Foundation is a non profit, non sectarian, spritual educational organization. This unique teaching center was founded September 2, 1970 in San Antonio, Texas by Dr. Rocco A. Errico. It currently maintains its facilities in Smyrna, Georgia The Foundation is dedicated to helping people of all faiths understand the Bible from a Near Eastern Aramaic perspective. It was established to show an alternate route one may take in biblical studies. The name Noohra is an Aramaic word meaning Light and enlightenment.

The Noohra Foundation presents direct modern English translations of ancient Aramaic biblical texts with their rich, sociological Semitic customs and traditions. This research work clarifies obscure and misunderstood scriptural passages. It further strengthens an affirmative image of God, humanity, the world and the universe. This teaching is not restricted to any particular denominational biblical interpretation. It provides a broader understanding of Scripture and a practical application for modern living. The Aramaic approach is direct and uncomplicated.

BOOKS BY DR. ERRICO

AND THERE WAS LIGHT $19.95 (16.96)

Like it’s predecessor, Let There Be Light, this book takes us through the heart of the Hebrew Bible and New Testament by working with Aramaic—the language spoken by the Patriarchs, Jesus, his apostles and their contemporaries. With his knowledge of the customs, idioms, psychology, symbolism and philosophy of Semitic peoples, Dr. Errico unlocks puzzling biblical passages. Suddenly the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, becomes clearer and more relevant for Western readers. The teachings ministry and parables of Jesus come alive as you’ve never read before. Topics include: Rabbi Eshoa-Jesus — An Aramaic Speaking Shemite, Uncovering Jesus’ Gospel, The Parables of Jesus (Dr. Errico’s translation), Perfect Love, An Expanded Teaching on the 23rd Psalm, The Book of Revelation.

LET THERE BE LIGHT: The Seven Keys $17.95 (15.26)

The Bible is more than anything else a Middle Eastern account of spiritual events and teachings. In his seminal work, Dr. Errico builds a bridge between Western ways of understanding and Middle Eastern social realities that are embedded in the Bible. He helps us see the Bible through Semitic, Aramaic eyes. Bypassing doctrinal creeds and rigid interpretations, he judiciously corrects numerous errors and misleading literal translations that have caused confusion for centuries. This book equips the reader with seven key insights to understand the allusions, parables, and teachings of the Bible, opening the door to the ancient Aramaic world from which the Bible emerged.

THE MYSTERIES OF CREATION: The Genesis Story $16.95 (14.41)

Dr. Errico uses his own direct translation from the Aramaic-Peshitta text of Genesis 1:1-31 and 2:1-3 as a basis for a challenging new look at the processes, revelations, and mysteries of the primal Creation account. He discusses the Semitic meaning, names, and theories of the origin of God and “its” means of creating the world. Where appropriate, Dr. Errico borrows insights from the world of both quantum physics and Biblical scholarship. He shows readers that behind the material appearance of the world operates a sacred Intelligence (called Elohim) and that all Creation is a meaningful representation of the creative acts of this primal deity.

THE MESSAGE OF MATTHEW: An Annotated Parallel Aramaic-English Gospel of Matthew $24.95 (21.21)

Here we see Dr. Errico at work with a classic text from the New Testament, exhibiting his inimitable blend of rigorous scholarship and intuitive interpretation to great advantage. Dr. Errico’s line-by-line translation runs on opposite pages to the original Aramaic as the book provides hundreds of footnotes clarifying cultural, political, and theological points raised in the translation. His intention is to carry the reader directly into the Semitic-Aramaic world in which this text originates and still lives. The simplicity, directness, and typical Eastern transparency and manner of delivery become evident when one reads the text of this “Shemitic dialect.”

SETTING A TRAP FOR GOD: The Aramaic Prayer of Jesus $12.95 (11.01)

A revised and expanded version of Dr. Errico’s most popular volume—his provocative re-translation (with commentary) of the Lord’s Prayer. In Dr. Errico’s fresh translation directly from the original Aramaic source, he interprets the prayer in terms of eight attunements that adjust us to spiritual forces in and around us, which is precisely how Jesus taught his disciples to tune in to the inexhaustible power of the Heavenly Father. “Prayer is not so much telling God what you want, but listening to what God would tell us,” says Dr. Errico.

CLASSICAL ARAMAIC: Book I $24.95 (21.21)

Dr. Errico and Fr. Michael Bazzi take the beginning student through the early stages of an instruction in the Aramaic language. The book is part workbook, part textbook, as the authors introduce the reader to the Aramaic alphabet; along the way, they discuss the meaning and shapes of the letters and the proper techniques for writing them.

CLASSICAL ARAMAIC – 2 TAPE OR CD SET $15.00 (12.00)

These tapes follow along with the exercises in the book and assist in the Aramaic pronunciation.

LA ANTIGUA ORACION ARAMEA DE JESUS: EL PADRE NUESTRO $8.95 (7.61)

THE SYRIAN CHRIST by Abraham M. Rihbany (Introduction by Dr. Errico) $19.95 (16.96)

In what has been passed down to us about Jesus' life, there is not a single detail that is not in total conformity with the language and mode of thinking of the Near East—a culture completely different from our own. In this book we travel with the author, a Lebanese Christian born in 1869, back into this vanished biblical world. He experienced it first-hand, since living conditions during his boyhood were still identical with those of Jesus' time. When he tells us about the domestic life of his family and the world of Syrian shepherds and farmers, the biblical world comes to life—in short, Rihbany immerses us in this ancient world, and we see Jesus the man in his own Near Eastern culture. This powerful and warmhearted book will delight the reader with its simplicity of narrative and with its insight into the world of the Near East.

GEORGE M. LAMSA, Th.D.

George M. Lamsa, Th.D., a renowned native Assyrian scholar of the Holy Bible, translator, lecturer, ethnologist and author, was born August 5, 1892, in a civilization with customs, manners and language almost identical to those in the time of Jesus. His native tongue was full of similar idioms and parables, untouched by the outside world in 1900 years. Until World War I, his people living in that part of the ancient biblical lands that today is known as Kurdistan, in the basin of the rivers Tigris and Euphrates, retained the simple nomadic life as in the days of the Hebrew patriarchs. Only at the beginning of the 20th century did the isolated segment of the once great Assyrian Empire learn of the discovery of America and the Reformation in Germany.

Lamsa's formal education and studies began under the priests and deacons of the ancient Church of the East. Later he graduated with the highest honors ever bestowed from the Archbishop of Canterbury's Colleges in Iran and in Turkey, with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He spoke eight languages, and his lowest grade in any subject was 99. Lamsa never married but dedicated his life to "God's calling."

After arriving in the United States in his early 20s, Lamsa worked by day as a printer, and by night he went to school. He later studied at the Episcopal Theological Seminary in Alexandria, Virginia, and at Dropsie College in Philadelphia. It was through his struggles, during these years, with the English idioms that Lamsa gradually launched into his "life's work" of translating the Holy Bible from Aramaic into English. Yet many years were to pass before the world received his translations.

First as a lecturer in churches and seminaries, in halls and auditoriums, before statesmen, theologians, groups of artists, actors and others, Lamsa received recognition as a poet-philosopher and as an authority on all phases of Near Eastern civilization. It was his own inner compulsion, and the urging of hundreds who heard him, that drove him forward and brought about—after 30 years of labor, research and study—his translation of the Holy Bible from a branch of the ancient Aramaic language that the earliest Christians used.

It was Lamsa's firm belief that his translation from Aramaic would bring people closer to the Word of God and would facilitate understanding between the East and the West. For forty years, he produced commentaries and many other works based on the Aramaic language. The last ten years of his life, Dr. Lamsa tutored and prepared Dr. Rocco A. Errico to continue with the Aramaic approach to Scripture. He left this earthly life on September 22, 1975, in Turlock, California.
